ORGANIZER

Vamos Scotland (CQTC Group) works to promote creativity in all its forms and focuses its energy on projects, with a positive impact in the areas they are carried out with a direct influence on its residents. Our main objective is to make visible, on both a local and global level, the enormous influx of new creators in our environment, and to promote their work. We aim to have a significant impact and leave a lasting impression. We promote artistic activities from various locations and convey them to new sites where these expressions acquire a different value. CQTC is based on the ideas that move us and projects that have a clear and positive effect on society. The key to our current success lies in promoting collaboration between artists, communities and businesses.

PROMOTERS AND SUPPORT

The Scottish Mental Health Arts and Film Festival is one of Scotland's most diverse cultural events, covering everything from music, film and visual art to theatre, dance, and literature. The annual festival takes place in venues across Scotland throughout October, aiming to support the arts and challenge preconceived ideas about mental health.

By engaging artists, connecting with communities and forming collaborations, we celebrate the artistic achievements of people with experience of mental health issues, exploring the relationship between creativity and the mind, and promoting positive mental health and well-being.
